

Assignment 8

5 steps to write good commit

1. Include only the files related to the feature you are implementing.

2. Commit subject should be concise and reflect the essence of the commit.
3. Commit body should include all the details of the changes you made and how.
4. Add reference to the feature/bug you are implementing/fixing if applied.

5. Always make the commit message verbal.